France: “La Joie de Vivre”

Whether planning a weekend Paris get away or a week-long visit to the Normandy World War II sites or the sun-soaked pretty villages of Provence, be ready to slow down and relax.

Sit down at a side walk café and sip a café au lait, a glass of wine or a fresh squeezed orange juice and watch the French “Art de Vivre”.

You are now ready to head for the main sights.

Paris

During our very informal seminar, you will learn how to minimize wait time in museums, find alternate transportation, discover little known landmarks and attractions in Paris, and ask any question you may have. You will also receive the latest Paris map.

Provence

Do you dream of staying in a castle or super hideaway favored by celebrities? Or are you looking for great value hotels? You will receive the top choices in the South.

Considering taking a cooking course or a watercolor painting class? Information will be available.

Normandy

It has its place in history with the D-Day beaches, American Cemetery and war museums.

But Normandy has a lot more to offer. Discover mystical Norman Abbeys and charming seaside villages, immortalized by famous 19th century Impressionist painters.
